

Town of Greater Napanee

Council Highlights

Regular Meeting of Council for July 9, 2024

Presentation - Ad Hoc Trails Committee

Council received a presentation from the Ad Hoc Trails Committee regarding updates since establishing the committee in 2023. Committee members outlined the vision for the potential trail, obstacles for establishing the trail, and maps of proposed trail routes. An updated terms of reference will be brought forward so the Ad Hoc Trails Committee can continue their work.

Deputation - Greater Napanee Pride Crosswalk

Council heard a deputation from Greater Napanee Pride requesting permission to install a sign at Market Square to recognize the sponsors of the rainbow crosswalk art. This gesture would publicly acknowledge the sponsors and provide clarification on who is paying for the installation of the crosswalk each year.

Deputation - Transportation Challenges for Local Seniors

Council heard a deputation regarding the bus service provided by Lennox & Addington Seniors Outreach Services (L&A SOS) that was cancelled effective June 30, 2024. The council representative on the L&A SOS board will discuss if there is a solution to the cancelled bus service with the board.

Amendment to Fees for Service By-law

Council passed an amendment to Schedule E of the Fees for Service By-law. The amendment to this by-law will increase certain facilities and programming fees.

Dog Control By-law Public Consultation

Feedback is being collected until July 12th, 2024, on potential changes to the Dog Control By-law. Residents can complete the survey available on Let's Talk Greater Napanee to provide their input. The results of the public consultation and proposed draft by-law will be brought forward to Council later this summer.
